

Saturday, March 13 at Wagstaffe Hall at 2 pm

The Bouddi Society presents

An AFTERNOON with BILL LEAK

“The High and Low Arts”
“Confessions of a Painter & Cartoonist”

Celebrated artist and cartoonist and Killcare resident Bill Leak will give an illustrated talk about his life and times painting and drawing Australian politicians and identities.

Bill has received 19 Stanley Awards from the Australian Cartoonists Association, 8 Walkley Awards and, having been a finalist twelve times, can confidently claim to have lost The Archibald Prize more consistently than almost any other Australian painter. He is also an exceptionally accomplished and entertaining speaker. Don't miss him.

Entrance: $15 ($12 Society Members) Students $5. Refreshments Included